DUBAI (UNITED ARAB EMIRATES)

- ❖ Panoramic tour of some of the most new and modern areas of Dubai such as The Palm Jumeirah, Burj Al Arab, Dubai Marina etc ...

The iconic Palm Jumeirah is an absolutely stunning archipelago of man-made islands in the Persian Gulf at Jumeirah, Dubai, United Arab Emirates. The Palm Jumeirah is built in the shape of a date palm tree and consists of three parts: a trunk, a crown with 17 fronds and a surrounding crescent island that forms a wave breaker.

Burj Al Arab Jumeirah is undoubtedly one of the most famous landmarks and tourist attractions in Dubai, and is renowned for its 'seven-star status'. Since its opening in 1999, the Burj Al Arab has played host to a covetable guest list of VIPs and celebrities from all over the world, helping put Dubai on the global luxury tourism map. Built on its own island, the sail-shaped building rises 321m, providing an amazing view of the Persian Gulf. Burj Al Arab is best viewed from the coastline areas surrounding it, like from Sunset Beach or venues like Madinat Jumeirah from where the sail-shaped hotel makes for an iconic backdrop.

As a tourist area there is no denying the appeal of Dubai Marina. Skyscrapers rub shoulders with its meandering canal, where luxury yachts wait patiently for their next departure. The area, which stretches from Al Sufouh Road and encompasses Jumeirah Beach Residence (JBR) has established itself as one of the city's most popular neighborhoods.

❖ Lunch Time at Dubai Mall

❖ Burj Khalifa – Observation Deck & Dubai Magic Fountains Show

The Burj Khalifa is the tallest building in the world and a true global icon. This engineering marvel represents the heart and soul of the city of Dubai. Standing some 828 meters tall, this majestic structure is located next to the Dubai Mall and has been attracting visitors from all over the world since its opening in 2010. The Burj Khalifa offers unparalleled views that can be enjoyed from an breathtaking observation deck: At the Top, which has two floors located between the 124th and 125th floors of the building.

The Dubai Magic Fountains Show. Witness the tallest performing fountain in the world during your visit to Downtown Dubai. The Dubai Fountain offers a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to immerse yourself in a captivating water, music and light experience.

Submerged within the 30-acre Burj Lake, at the foot of The Dubai Mall, powerful water jets are laid out strategically over an area the length of two football pitches. The fountain jets up to 22,000 gallons of water as high as 140m in the air at any one time.

MAASAI MARA NATIONAL RESERVE - GUIDED SAFARI

Get ready to explore with us on a guided safari. We think you will love this place, as you will almost certainly see a multitude of wild animals, from carnivores to herbivores and birds. Some of the famous predators you are likely to see are lions, leopards, cheetahs and spotted hyenas. The park has an incredible population of impala, zebra, buffalo and other types of antelope. Our expert guide will help you make the most of this place by sharing his knowledge of the wildlife, people and landscape.

The experience of witnessing predators and prey in the Maasai Mara National Reserve is simply awe-inspiring. The heart beats with excitement as you contemplate the majesty of lions, leopards and cheetahs stalking across the vast expanse of savannah. Their graceful and powerful movements arouse a sense of awe and respect for wild nature. Meanwhile, herds of wildebeest, zebra and antelope traverse the land with captivating grace, creating a symphony of life in motion. The eternal cycle of hunting and survival unfolds before our eyes, reminding us of the fragility and beauty of the food chain. In the Maasai Mara, nature unfolds in its most pristine and wild form, leaving an indelible mark on our hearts.

THE GAME OF SURVIVAL IN THE WILD KINGDOM OF THE MAASAI MARA

In the Maasai Mara National Reserve, a game of survival unfolds between hyenas, vultures, crocodiles and herbivores. The hyenas, cunning and agile, stalk in clans, looking for weakened prey to feed on. Meanwhile, vultures watch from above, waiting for their chance to descend and devour the carcasses. In the rivers, crocodiles lurk silently, waiting for herbivores to come near to drink water. But the herbivores, aware of the danger, remain on constant alert, forming herds and maintaining a strong instinct for mutual protection. In this fascinating game of life and death, only the strongest and most adapted survive in the relentless Maasai Mara wilderness.
