Here we'll experience what life was like underground (not for the claustrophobic) and how their ingenuity enabled them to resist, inventing all kinds of tricks and tools to escape. This is where the Viet Cong planned their assault on Saigon during the Tet (New Year) celebrations of 1968. In 1990, the government opened the tunnels to the public. Entering the complex means crawling in the dark through narrow tunnels for several meters. Although they have been enlarged, we'll likely touch the walls with our shoulders.

- ❖ Breakfast in the hotel.
- ❖ We will start the trip in Asakusa heading to the Tokyo Sky Tree that rises above the skyline of the capital at 634 meters high, and enjoys fantastic panoramic views of the city. On a clear day, you can't see infinity, but it is one of the few places in Tokyo from where you can see Mount Fuji. After visiting the Tokyo Skytree, we will return to the Senso-ji area until we reach Kaminarimon, the iconic Thunder Gate. Senso-ji is one of the most important Buddhist temples in Tokyo and a place steeped in history and spirituality. There we will enjoy the traditional atmosphere, browse the stores inside the grounds and experience up close the experience of visiting one of Japan's great religious icons. After exploring the traditional heart of Tokyo in Asakusa, the tour continues to Odaiba, an iconic man-made island in Tokyo Bay. To get there, the entire group will meet for a Cruise Tour that will drop us off in the Odaiba area, where you will see such items as a replica of the Statue of Liberty. To end the day, we will visit the TeamLab Planets museum, a unique experience with immersive works of art to enjoy with all the senses and that will leave visitors with their mouths open.

SUNDAY MAY 17th 2026 TOKYO (SHIBUYA + SHINJUKU)

❖ Breakfast in the hotel

❖ A visit to Meiji Jingu, a Shinto shrine surrounded by a lush forest in the heart of Tokyo, dedicated to Emperor Meiji (1852-1912) and Empress Shoken, who made Japan a modern nation, is a must. Meiji Jingu is our first stop in the city of Tokyo, because any visit to the bustling neighborhoods of Shibuya and Harajuku combines perfectly with a leisurely stroll along the popular paths leading to the main shrine. Afterwards, we will head for Japan's economic district par excellence, Shinjuku. Upon arrival we will see major department stores such as Isetan, Takashimaya, Keio, Odakyu, Kinokuniya Bookstore, Tokyu Hands, Bic Camera, Yodobashi and Labi. In the immediate vicinity there are thousands of stores and, if you walk in any direction from the station, there are thousands of other stores, restaurants, bars, nightclubs and cinemas. Shinjuku is a space of contrast, on the one hand, the sobriety of the Tokyo Metropolitan Government Office building to Kabukicho where the party is. Often called the district that never sleeps, to be more precise, it loses consciousness a couple of hours well into the morning.

- ❖ We will head to the historic Hakone checkpoint station. This place was an important barrier protecting the Tōkaidō Road during the Edo period, and here you can see what the strict surveillance measures of the time were like and get a glimpse of how travelers lived in those days. Nearby is Hakone Yumoto, a former post town that prospered during the Edo period.

HAKONE

- ❖ One of Hakone's best-known tourist attractions is the Owakudani Volcanic Valley, where one of the specialties is the "black egg" cooked in the geothermal heat of the volcano. Eating one of these eggs is said to extend one's life. In addition, from Owakudani you can see an impressive natural landscape, with sulfur fumaroles emerging from the earth, showing the powerful force of nature.

However, the visit goes beyond the panoramic views; the four temples that converge at Kiyomizu-dera offer a unique spiritual experience.

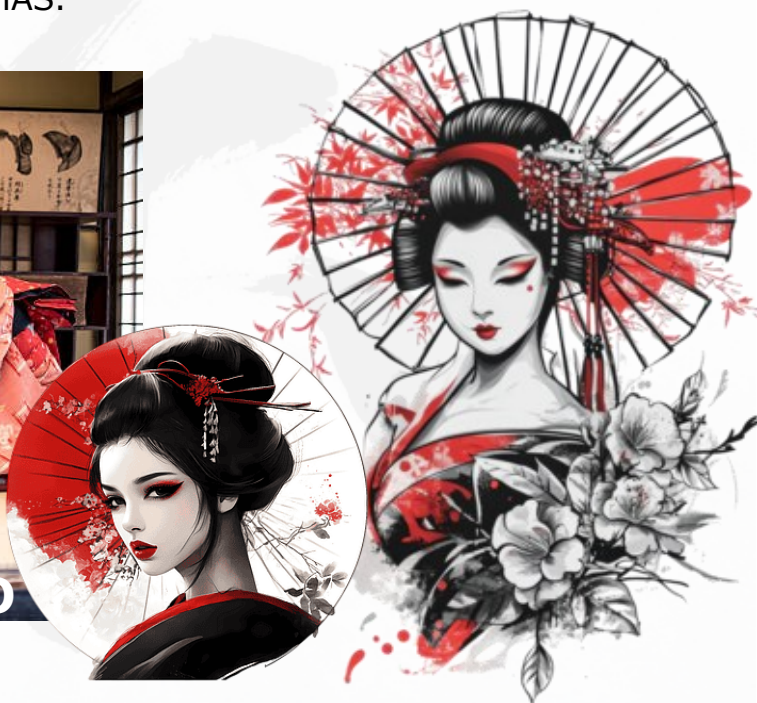

KIYOMIZU-DERA

- ❖ After exploring these temples, we return to Gion to immerse ourselves in Kyoto's past. This charming neighborhood is home to traditional residences, quaint teahouses, restaurants serving local dishes, and venerable temples and shrines. It is also known as the "entertainment district", famous for the refined Geisha and Maiko (apprentice) performers who have captivated onlookers for centuries. Among their homes, we will enjoy the experience of a traditional Tea Ceremony led by one of these GEISHAS.
