MARRAKECH

MARRAKECH is one of the most important and vibrant cities in Morocco, known as the "Red City" for the color of its adobe buildings and its fascinating fusion of history, labyrinthine souks and living culture.

It is the most visited destination in the country, a place ideal to experience traditional Islamic architecture and explore colorful markets offering a unique contrast between ancient traditions and absolutely photogenic corners. Among its most iconic and famous places are the Jemaa el-Fna Square: the beating heart of the medina that transforms at sunset into a huge food market and outdoor setting. The Koutoubia Mosque: The icon of the city skyline, whose minaret served as a model for the Giralda in Seville. The Bay Palace: A jewel of the 19th century famous for its detailed stucco, carved cedar roofs and beautiful patios. Official tickets to this palace must now be managed online or the Majorelle Gardens: A tranquil botanical oasis of exotic plants that stands out for its iconic structures painted in cobalt blue.

RULES, GUIDELINES AND MAIN REGULATIONS OF THE EVENT

To take part in the event, each participant will use his / her own motorcycle and although will have maximum collaboration and assistance from the IPA staff, they will at all times be solely responsible for its use, fuel supply, conservation, custody, and repair if necessary.

Although the Trail-type motorcycles could be the most suitable, since almost all itineraries will run on asphalt, also the Touring and Sport-Touring motorbikes, and even large-capacity scooters are perfectly valid.

Although the route will normally be carried out in a relatively compact manner, once each stage has been started, the corresponding circulation will be free. Anyway, prior and timely the organization will provide participants/riders a very detailed program and itinerary in order to properly prepare the route.

Daily briefings will be held to remind details of the next day's stage and its itinerary.

The organization will also inform participants in a timely manner of the necessary documentation (personnel and motorcycle) that must be prepared and in force.

In case of force majeure, the organization reserves the right to make necessary changes to the program or route.

The organization will email the Registration Form to those interested.
